

CALL BACK AGREEMENT

We.....
(employer)

Of.....
(business name)

And

.....
(employee name)

both hereby mutually agree to abide by Clause 28.9(b) of the Federal Vehicle Manufacturing, Repair, Services and Retail Award 2010.

I..... do make myself available outside normal working hours (employee)
to be rostered for and in turn called upon for breakdown, accident or roadside service work.

I..... will make payment for such work in accordance with the (employer)
relevant provisions of the Federal Vehicle Manufacturing, Repair, Services and Retail Award 2010.

The parties to this agreement acknowledge that this agreement also forms a crucial part of the contract of employment and where a party to the agreement decides to withdraw its agreement, such withdrawal may lead to termination of employment if no other roster arrangements are available that meets the needs of the business or the employee. Therefore, to allow for the possibility of adequate alternative arrangements being organised between the parties to avoid such termination, it is also agreed that if either party wishes to terminate this agreement, they must do so by providing a minimum of 8 weeks' notice in writing.
