

DO NOT use this equipment unless you are authorised to use it and, have been instructed in its safe use and operation

Safety glasses must be worn at all times in work areas

Sturdy non slip footwear must be worn at all times

Long and loose hair must be contained

Close fitting / protective clothing must be worn

Hearing protection must be used when using this machine.

Rings & jewellery of a loose nature must not be worn

POTENTIAL HAZARDS:

- Manual handling
- Pinching and jamming
- Flying debris
- Rotating parts
- Hearing damage

PRE-OPERATIONAL SAFETY CHECKS

- Visually inspect the unit - do not proceed if anything noted to be faulty
- Understand how the unit operates, refer to the manual or seek training BUT do not proceed if unsure
- Check the electrical test and tagging to make sure the device is compliance and up to date
- Ensure the power source is protected
- Make sure the unit is correctly mounted - check mountings
- Only operate the unit if it's on a firm level surface
- Ensure all safety guards are fitted and operational
- Advise people in area of the activity
- Do not exceed the manufacturers load and operating instructions - refer to manual
- Keep the area free of obstacles
- Operate the unit in its designated area only that is dust free and has the correct signage.

OPERATIONAL SAFETY

- Ensure the unit is switched off
- Ensure the tyre and rim you are using is clean and free of debris
- Select the correct mounting hardware as per the rim size and refer to the relevant chart
- Lift the safety guard and raise the wheel into position - attach as per instruction
- Select the tyre size and programme unit
- Advise people accessing your area of your work intentions
- Run tyre through the tyre cycle
- Do not raise the guard until wheel is stationary
- Add weight to relevant areas- per instruction from unit
- Do not leave unit unattended whilst running and powered
- Remove the wheel per instruction once balance complete
- Remain alert at all times whilst operating equipment
-

POST-Operation:

- Maintain the unit regularly
- Report any damages or faults as soon as possible

